

Thank you for your interest in obtaining a transcript of this program.

Unfortunately, Back to the Bible is no longer able to provide written transcripts for our daily broadcasts.

We know that many of our listeners found value in this service, but we are regrettably no longer able to dedicate the staff and resources necessary to create transcripts each day.

However, transcripts from past programs (through 9/22/11) are still available as part of our program archives.

Thank you for your understanding.
